

I oppose media concentration!

I am writing to you today to comment on Docket No. 02-277, the Biennial Review of the FCC's broadcast media ownership rules. In promoting its supposed goals of fair competition, diversity and local voice in today's media market, I strongly believe that the FCC should retain all of the current media ownership rules now in question. These rules serve the public interest by limiting the market power of the huge, dominant companies and players in the broadcast industry.

I urge you to maintain the rules which prevent single entities from owning more than one outlet in a particular area and to otherwise maintain rules which prevent further concentration of ownership. Diverse owners are the best guarantors of media democracy.

Sincerely,
Virginia Kerr
